WHO

Suffolk County Executive, Steve Bellone presenting together with Greenport Village Mayor, George W. Hubbard, Jr. Suffolk County Legislator, Al Krupski and Southold Town Supervisor, Scott Russell in attendance.

WHAT

This summer Greenport Village will host the Greenport Tall Ships Challenge 2015 on July 4th weekend (July 4-7). At this historic event, the village will welcome six Tall Ships, with the Hermione as guest of honor. It was the Hermione, which brought Lafayette to the aid of General Washington and turned the tide of the American Revolution.

WHEN

Thursday, May 5th at 11:30 am

WHERE

The “Wharf” at Claudio’s Clam Bar, 111 Main Street, Greenport.

FOLLOWING THE PRESS CONFERENCE, A LIGHT BUFFET LUNCH AND REFRESHMENTS WILL BE SERVED, COURTESY OF CLAUDIO’S. AND GREENPORT HARBOR BREWING COMPANY

WHY

To communicate the important economic impact Greenport Tall Ships will have on Greenport Village, the North Fork region and Suffolk County.

To celebrate Greenport—its heritage as a major whaling port, shipbuilding and maritime community, to its present day, a working waterfront community with a lively business district and waterfront park that welcomes local and visitors alike
